"The Future of Medicine shall be of Sound and Color"
-Hanna Kroeger

My Name is Robert John Malone, for the last decade I have been traveling the United States providing Sound Healing Sessions & Teaching Sacred Sound Workshops at Yoga Events, Wellness Expo's & Transformational Festivals. The Sacred Sound Services I provide are a wide range of Wellness Modalities including Yoga, Breathwork, Chakra Alignments, Gong Massage, Crystal Acupuncture, Ear Candling & In-Depth Sound Therapy Soul Sessions.

All of which are a non-invasive support system that helps reduce stress by focusing the mind. In many cases these techniques aide in Mental, Emotional & Physical disorders, due to the fact 80% of disorders have been shown by science to be the result of Stress. The techniques I teach are tools that have been shared with me by many enlightened souls on my personal journey of healing. Each tool guides us towards "Self-Empowerment" as once learned the tools are easy to apply and with discipline can be privately practiced to help anyone remain more physically relaxed, emotionally balanced, & mentally focused as daily life goes on.

Clients I've worked with report improvements with many of the following...

- Insomnia
- A.D.D. / O.C.D.
- Anger Management
- Anxiety
- Phobias
- Depression
- Inflammation
- Digestion
- Pain Management
- Poor Blood Circulation
- Vision
- Hearing
- Relationships/Communication Skill

E=MC² occurred to me by Intuition, & Music was the driving force behind that Intuition, my discovery was the result of musical perception.

"It has been my pleasure to experience the Sound Healing of Robert John Malone in workshops at my festival ranch 3SidedWhole.com in the desert of New Mexico as well as at a house concert in my home. I was delighted to immerse myself in his ambient sound fields, resonant healing tones, personalized gonging and masterful compassionate explanations of sound and its value for health and well being. Truly the best pure Sound Healing experiences I have had. I look forward to working with Robert in future festivals, workshops and sound healing experiences with my clients and family."

"Robert was amazing to work with. He is authentic in his words and actions; always present with an open heart. The work we did with him showed his creativity and his ability to connect with others. We are still getting positive responses from our customers and the last time we worked with him was over a month ago."

"My experience of working with Robert is simple. I believe in the healing power of music so I wanted to have him work with me. Spontaneously my son participated in our first two sessions together. My son was 5 years old at the time and after the two sessions I noticed that my son's nails were super long and realized it was because he stopped biting his nails!. His father and I had not put too much attention into the "poor habit" but as a mother I knew it was the result of the sound healing work we had done with Robert. You may think this is trivial but, how many people do you know have little nervous habits that they can't get rid of smoking, fidgeting, nail biting, foot tapping, emotional eating, etc....as an acupuncturist we see these as signs of stress/anxiety or an inability to be at peace with just being. Robert's work truly brings us into a place of being that as he puts it is more "Relaxed, Balanced, & Focused" Plain and simple. Thank you Robert.

"After my first session with Robert I could tell he had a strong connection with spirit, I have since worked with him several times to help with stress and have found his sound therapy sessions continue to be transformational. His approach to healing is simple and grounded in what he terms "self-empowerment". The tools I learned working with Robert leave me feeling Inspired, more relaxed & internally recharged, Thank you for your guidance Robert!."

"Working with Robert has been a truly unique experience. After just a few sound-healing sessions, I have felt myself transform in many positive ways. He has a clear understanding of what our spirit needs. I've always known the power of music but working with Rob's sound bowls is on an entirely different and deeper level. The energy that he taps into is both freeing and healing. I highly recommend working with him!"

"My first experience with sound therapy. After going through a series of different exercises and such, I was subjected to some powerful sounds generated by quartz crystal and traditional Tibetan singing bowls, among other things. After an evening of feeling 'spaced' and a subsequent day of massive detoxification, I feel...Whole. As if the pieces of me have been unified into something much greater than their sum. I feel more ME than I can ever recall in this lifetime. And it's incredibly peaceful. Thanks Robert! A gift like this is beyond worldly value."
